Subject: Work Zone Training Requirements

The Work Zone Training Requirements have been updated. We have separated the Work Zone Training Requirements into CE&I and Pre-Construction Services to ensure Consultants have a better understanding of who they need to be sending to training. You will see the new Work Zone Training Requirements in all future ads. They will be effective as of March 26, 2015.

If you have any questions please email hadi.shirazi@la.gov and heather.huval@la.gov.

Thank you for your patience in this matter.
